

	Medical School Tuition	Monetary Benefits in Medical School	Residency	Service Requirements
HPSP	Yes	~$2000/month + $20,000 signing bonus	Military Match – Specialty Limitations	Four Years (if beginning MS1)
HSCP	No	~$4000/month + Medical School Years Count Toward Retirement	Military Match – Specialty Limitations	Four Years (if beginning MS1)
FAP	No	None	Civilian Residency with a Military Grant ($45,000 annually) and stipend ($2000/month)	Two Years for the first FAP year, 1:1 ratio after the first year.
Active Duty Repayment	$120,000 in loan reimbursement	None	Civilian residency	Loan paid in $40,000 installments over first three years of service
Reserves	No	~$2000/month, though programs vary	Civilian Residency	One year of service for each six months of aid

From “Pathways to a Military Paycheck in Medicine” by Erin Wildermuth. Published on The Student Doctor Network (<https://www.studentdoctor.net/2019/10/31/pathways-to-a-military-paycheck-in-medicine/>) on October 31, 2019.